

Program Specific Outcomes (PSO)

PSO No.	Program Specific Outcomes Statements
PSO1	Function professionally as an engineer to solve problems by applying acquired knowledge in chemical and allied field.
PSO2	Designing an environment friendly system for effective reaction, separation and purification and other operations in various processes with proper safety measures using modern engineering tools individually or in a team.
PSO3	Practicing engineering with professional ethics for the benefit of society with proper communication to the community.